Refreshments are served in the Social Hall after service.

2/1/26 Universal-ish

Paul Garfinkel will read the sermon "Universal-ish" by UU Rev. Lóre Stevens, which explores the roots of "Universalism." Paul will add his own views on the relevance of this philosophy to these "interesting" times, our community and congregation. Sermon author, Lóre Stevens, is a queer Mexican-American atheist woman and minister at Oak Ridge UU Church in Oak Ridge, TN. A Harvard Divinity graduate, she is a recipient of the UU History & Heritage Society Research Prize and the Dana Greeley Sermon Award. Paul Garfinkel is a UUDeLand member and our Music Coordinator.

2/8/26 Spirituality of Service

Carol Swarbrick Dries will present the "Spirituality of Service" sermon, with a ritual to honor the changing of UUDeLand's Board. The sermon, by Erik Wikstrom, argues that people come to church not only for belonging but for transforming lives. He invites congregations to see lay leadership and committee work as spiritual practice, not mere administration. Erik is the Lead UU Minister at Thomas Jefferson Memorial Church in Charlottesville, VA and author of several books and curricula. Carol is a UUDeLand member, actor and singer. Joyce Palmer will be our service leader.

2/15/26 Luminescence

The UU Luminescence service is a winter holiday celebrating UU identity, focusing on inner light, diversity, and spiritual growth through candle-lighting rituals that symbolize recognition, reflection, refocusing, and renewal. It is often held in late January/February, when the dark days of winter are replaced with the light of spring. Sue Habel will be the Service Leader and Presenter. Sue became a member of UU DeLand in 2014. Since then, she has served on the Programming Committee, Nominating Committee, and Publicity Committee.

2/22/26 Braver Angels: Bridging America's Political Divide

Our country is more divided than ever, with many of us isolated from those with different views. This division damages our communities, disrupts our families, and stops us from working together for the common good. Braver Angels is leading the nation's largest cross-partisan, volunteer-led movement to bridge the partisan divide and strengthen our democratic republic. Our speaker, Chuck Tyler, leads Braver Angels Florida as an organizer who turns community energy into measurable impact. Chuck's leadership brings LAPP (Listen, Acknowledge, Pivot, Perspective) skills to life, creating spaces where trust can grow and citizens can work together across differences. Mitzi Dykes will be our service leader.
