Right Relations for a Healthy Congregation

Our congregational life calls forth our highest aspirations and best selves as we journey together to live our mission, pursue our visions, uphold our UU principles and provide a safe place for everyone.

We acknowledge that we are different from each other. We recognize that we are enriched by our diversity and that our differences will sometimes be a source of conflict. We acknowledge that we are all responsible for our own words and actions.

In this light we strive to:

- Nurture a safe and welcoming community.
- Honor each other's inherent worth.
- Assume good will on the part of each other.
- Listen to each other with care.
- Speak to and about each other with respect.
- Be honest with each other.
- Talk directly to each other even if differences exist.
- Ask for help when conflict is too difficult to handle alone.
